

The 5th TOPRA Annual VETERINARY Symposium 2010

TOPRA – The Organisation for Professionals in Regulatory Affairs

Reference: SYM/10

Present Experience, Future Vision

Organised in conjunction with the UK Veterinary Medicines Directorate

This important annual Veterinary Symposium is now recognised as a key event in the European calendar of all those working in the veterinary arena.

Aim

This annual Symposium is for all those involved with Veterinary medicines and brings together representatives of industry and regulatory authorities to discuss and understand today's regulatory requirements, and debate the future plans for regulation. This is the key annual European regulatory forum for all those involved in the veterinary medicines sector and aims to bring you all the latest information and importantly what is coming over the horizon. There will also be ample time to network in the breaks and also view services from exhibitors in the industry and the regulatory bodies.

Who should attend

All those working in veterinary medicines from industry and the regulatory authorities who wish to know how legislation will affect their daily work.

Programme includes

A keynote presentation on the Community Animal Health policy of the European Commission.

Followed by 4 key themes:

- Working together in the European Union – strategies for the future:
 - HMA
 - EMA
 - European Commission
- Referrals – the issues and views of CMD(v), National agencies, CVMP view and Industry

- Variations – experience so far with the new regulation and directives with input from EMA, national agencies and industry
- Implementation of new requirements and procedures:
 - Minor Use and Minor Species Guideline
 - Annex I of Directive 2009/9: experience with IVMPs
 - Making electronic submissions work

There will also be ample time for questions during the panel discussions throughout the day.
